Games To-Morrow.

Danville at Richmond (Morning and afternoon).
Lynchburg at Roanoke (Morning and afternoon).
Portsmouth at Norfolk.

Notwithstanding the gray, gloomy skies and a dreary drizzle of drenching rain, a good crowd, numbering some 6,000 souls, gathered at the ball park yesterday afternoon in time for the first game, and the game was well rewarded for coming out, for they saw some of all the various kinds of baseball on the market, except the bad kind. The first contest was a bit late in beginning, for the clouds commenced to break away, and the sun was not started till the rainfall had nearly subsided.

The first contest was a beauty, and was only marred by the kicking of Lawrence, who was at first warned by Mr. Byron, and when the kicking was renewed in the sixth inning on a decision of what there was not the slightest doubt, Titman being clearly safe at third, the umpire ordered him out of the game.

The first game opened up with one of the prettiest plays seen here this season, when Schrader ran up nearly to the home-plate and caught Titman's pop-fly in his glove hand, literally making a flying dive to reach the ball, and holding it fast, though he rolled over and over after he had grasped the sphere. The play is one which would have been a piece of stellar work in the fastest company, and it was applauded to the echo.

Bussey, the new twirler, who starred on the Wilmington team, and has lately been acquired by the Richmond aggregation, was on the slab for the locals. He certainly made good all right, slapping a beautiful game and letting down the Trunkers with five hits. His delivery is easy, and his control was perfect, only one pass to first being drawn by the Trunkers. The grandstand and bleachers gave him a warm welcome, and he had to elevate his sky-cape a number of times during the game. "Scrapiron" Cowan covered the initial sack and did it well, and in addition to his good field work he secured two of the locals' four hits.

The Trunkers made a beautiful one-hand stop of Cowan's infield hit in the fifth, and the crowd applauded, but he spoiled it all by his useless kicking, which finally resulted in his being put out of the game. It is not often that the game Lilliputian loses his head as he did yesterday, but Byron was right, and he did not, as he always does it, firmly and conscientiously. His work throughout both games was tip-top. Lohr, the little ex-Roanoker, made a beautiful capture of Bussey's drive into right in the third, and was liberally applauded therefor.

The Richmond rooters had a chance to get busy in the sixth inning, and they rang cow bells till the cows seemed in no way to be coming home sure enough; they yelled, they whooped, they whistled, and they applauded, while four Lawmakers romped across the plate and brought the game to the Richmond camp, and the second game was called in the sixth inning with two Richmonders out. A fine rain was falling, and the Portsmouth bunch had to catch the boat. This contest was a walkover for the locals, and they swatted a home hide all over the lot in the second and third innings. Richmond hammered Willis for four hits, two two-sackers, two three-sackers and a home run, which netted them nine runs and the game. Willis certainly was treated to a bunch of lemons, for every man on the team secured one or more hits, and nine out of the twelve came in two innings.

Willis certainly got his bumps good and hard, and the locals did not hesitate to fatten their batting averages at his expense. They surely were after him, and they laid up against his hands, curves, twisters and shoots with swats which sounded like a report of rapid-fire guns in action, so thick and fast they came.

Kirkpatrick, out of three times up, swatted the sphere for a beautiful home run, which set the rooters plumb crazy, and secured, in addition, a home single. Kirk received all sorts of applause, which must have made him feel very good, and the whole bunch of rooters were undoubtedly with him all the time.

"Hot Mon" McKenzie was there with the goods, and he delivered a hot package of shots, benders and rapid-fire balls to the opposing batters, which they were unable to solve throughout the game. The Trunkers secured only three singles off of him, and even if Guadinger did get a three-bagger, "Mac" struck out eight men in six innings, and maybe that is not going it semi.

"Hot Mon" had lots of speed, with barrels of curves, and he mowed the Trunkers like a patent mowing machine cutting hay. "Mac" was invincible, and such pitching as he did yesterday would win any game. The whole bunch of the ball like friends, and the fielding of the entire team was well-nigh perfect, only one error being charged up against them. The fielding feature was easily the beautiful catch of Guy Titman, when he pulled down Guheen's long drive to right, thus robbing the star Trunkers second baseman out of the second hit in two days. It was a beautiful play, and deserves to be remembered along with the one made by Schrader in the first contest as a bit of stellar work, which would have looked good in any company. The scores:

FIRST GAME.

How the Band Wagon Moved Along in the First Game.

Lawrence was an easy out, Ison to Cowan. Toner went out on a fly to Sieber. Schrader popped one up which "Sandy" took into camp.

For Richmond, Lipe walked, but was caught between bases and tagged. Titman fouled out to Schrader, who made a beautiful one-hand catch that was a peach. Stinson walked. Sandherr went out, pitcher to first.

Second Inning.

Billet was out, Bussey to Cowan. Guheen died via Sandherr to Cowan. Guadinger cut three slices out of the atmosphere.

Cowan went out, third to first. Ison died by the same route. Sieber walked, but was tagged in an attempt to pilfer second.

Third Inning.

Lohr flew out to Sieber. Wadleigh hit one on the nose for two sacks. Hannafin popped one up to "Sandy" and Lawrence fouled out to Messitt.

Messitt went out, third to first. Bussey knocked a screamer to Lohr, who took it into camp. Lipe went down, second to first.

Fourth Inning.

Toner went out on a fly to Titman. Schrader singled, pilfered second, but could get no further, as Billet died, Lipe to Cowan, and Guheen's fly was snatched by Sandherr.

Titman knocked a high fly to Toner. Stinson flew out to Lohr. "Sandy" singled, but died on an attempt to appropriate the centre sack.

Fifth Inning.

Guadinger and Lohr each flew out to Stinson. Wadleigh fanned the atmosphere. "Sandy" got a nice single, Lawrence making a beautiful one-hand stop, but not being able to recover himself in time to throw Sandy out. Sandy died in an attempt to pilfer second. Ison failed to connect with the sphere, and Dr. Sieber flew out to centre.

Sixth Inning.

Hannafin fanned, Lawrence singled, but went out trying to pilfer second. Toner walked. Schrader went out on a grounder to first.

Messitt walked, went to second on Bussey's single. Each were advanced a base by Lipe's sacrifice. Messitt scoring on Toner's error, which landed Titman on first. Titman moved up a peg on Stinson's infield out. Sandherr safed on Lawrence's error, which also scored Bussey. Guadinger went out, pitcher to first.

Seventh Inning.

Billet singled, and went to third on Ison's bad error, which landed Guheen on first. Guadinger went out, pitcher to first. Lohr fanned. Wadleigh fled out to Sieber.

Eighth Inning.

Ison went out to centre. Sieber died, Guheen to Schrader. Messitt went out on a pop fly to Guadinger.

Ninth Inning.

Smith went down, Ison to Cowan. Toner flew out to Sandherr. Schrader popped one up to Ison. Bussey died, short to first. Lipe was put out, third to first. Titman knocked one to Hannafin and the aid time refuted.

Tenth Inning.

Billet flew out to short. Guheen died by the Ison-Cowan route. Guadinger flew out to Sieber.

SECOND GAME.

Movement of the Second Performance.

Lawrence singled. Toner was out for bunting third strike. Schrader safed on fielder's choice, Lawrence going out first to short at second. Billet fanned. Titman flew out to Toner. Lipe went out, Toner to Schrader. Stinson died, pitcher to first.

Third Inning.

Guheen fanned. Guadinger fell on to one of "Mac's" benders for three sacks. Lohr walked, pilfered second, and both scored on Willis's single. Stinson's error flung in the second fly. Smith was out for interfering with catcher, and Lawrence went out on grounder to Ison.

Richmond's runs came in the second and third innings. In the second Ison, Schrader, Guadinger, Cowan, and Sandherr, got a two-sacker. Cowan sacrificed, Ison tripled, scoring "Sandy."

"SMILING" DUTCH REVELLE.

SIR MARTIN TAKES FLATBUSH STAKES

NEW YORK, September 5.—Brilliant rain took the leadership, and then drew away to win by four lengths in 1:25 2-5, the race being run in the teeth of a heavy gale from the sea. Maskette took the place from Fayette by a length and a half, with Wedding Bells two lengths back. Trance was apparently outclassed.

Ballot Early to Front.

Mr. Keene's Ballot ran a magnificent race in the $20,000 Century Stakes, weight for ages, one mile and a half. When the start was made Notker took his own pace. John E. Madden's three-year-old, King James, became the contender immediately. In the run up the backstretch Ballot never led by more than a length. Near the far turn King James seemed to falter, and both Dorante and Frank Gill looked for a moment as if they would overhaul both of the pacemakers, but Ballot then drew away.

At the head of the stretch King James came again with another rush, but Notker just shook Ballot up a bit, and the Keene horse maintained his advantage to the end, when he passed the judges a winner by a length in the remarkably fast time of 2:30 3-5.

Dorante was third, four lengths behind King James, and eight lengths before Frank Gill. The world's record for the distance is 2:30 1-4, made in 1898 by Goodrich, a three-year-old.

Siebert flew out to right field. Kirkpatrick walked. McKenzie tripled, scoring Ison and Kirk. Titman singled, scoring "Mac." Lipe retired side on fly to centre. In the third Stinson singled. Sandherr fouled out to Schrader. Cowan doubled, scoring on Ison's single. Sieber singled and Jimmy scored.

"Kirk" swatted out a homer and the doctor romped home. McKenzie struck out and Titman went out, Toner to Schrader.

There was no more scoring, and the game was called in the sixth inning, after a steady drizzle had again set in.

The track has been put in excellent shape for the meet.

Wilmington Wins 3 Straight Games

Blanks Petersburg in Third Game, Which Was a Pretty Contest, Devoid of Errors.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WILMINGTON, N. C., September 5.—The Wilmington pennant winners of the Eastern Carolina League made it three straight by winning the third game of the series from Petersburg here today. The game was the fastest and best of the three, both teams playing errorless ball.

Three singles, coupled with a free pass to first, in the fourth inning, gave the locals three runs, which won the game. The visitors outbatted the locals, but could not bunch their hits. Both teams left to-night for Petersburg, where they will play Labor Day.

Weather Unfavorable for Flight.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 5.—There was no flight of the Wright aeroplane at Fort Myer to-day, owing to unfavorable weather conditions. The balloon tent which has up to the present housed the Wright aeroplane was to-day taken down and will be shipped, together with the dirigible balloon to St. Joseph, Mo. No flight will be made by Orville Wright to-morrow, and possibly not on Monday. Wright does not care to make any flights when a large crowd is present.

PITTSBURGH, PA., September 5.—Over 11,000 spectators seemed to enjoy the affair at Exposition Park this afternoon, when the Chicago champions walked away with the game from the Pittsburghs by a score of 11 to 0. The home team made five errors in the fourth and fifth innings. These, with seven hits secured by the visitors, gave Chicago four runs in the fourth inning and five in the fifth. The batting streak dropped out again in the ninth, when Chicago bunched three hits for two runs.

Reulbach pitched a splendid game for Chicago, allowing but four hits, and striking well for the home team, and during the first innings the visitors were retired in order. Chicago's runs in the fourth were made on two base hits, a sacrifice, and a single in the fifth one base on balls and four hits, together with errors by Pittsburgh. A base on balls and three hits in the final inning made the score.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., September 5.—Pitcher Rucker of Brooklyn team, established a record for this (National League) season in the second game of a double-header against Boston, by hitting no one out, and allowing no runs, no hits, and no errors. He struck out fourteen men, allowed no hit and gave no base on balls. Only three of the visiting team reached first base, and they got there on errors.

Jordan also distinguished himself by making another of his sensational home run hits over the right field fence.
